Subject: Access to documents request – Response

Dear ████████████████████

This letter is in response to your request submitted March 13, 2023 under the Act respecting Access to Documents Held by Public Bodies and the Protection of Personal Information (“the Act”), for the following:

- An inventory list of all items sold at cafeterias run by Student Housing and Hospitality Services including the price for which the items are sold to students and the supplier if possible for the 2022-2023 academic year.
- Any invoices, correspondances, reports, or other documents showing the price for which these items were purchased from suppliers during the 2022-2023 academic year.
- A complete list of all suppliers that provide items sold at cafeterias run by Student Housing and Hospitality Services.

Please note that McGill University holds no documents responsive to parts 1 and 2 of your request. Specifically, it would not be able to produce the requested information without performing a calculation or comparison of information, which a public body is not required to do under section 15 of the Act.

Regarding part 3 of your request, the following is list of external suppliers from whom Student Housing and Hospitality Services (SHHS) purchased food products during the current fiscal year (2022-23) for the three dining halls that are operated by SHHS (Royal Victoria College, Bishop Mountain Hall, Douglas Hall):

An Act respecting Access to Documents Held by Public Bodies and the Protection of Personal Information, CQLR c A-2.1

15. The right of access applies only to documents that can be released without requiring computation or comparison of information.

1982, c. 30, s. 15.

135. Every person whose request has been denied, in whole or in part, by the person in charge of access to documents or of protection of personal information may apply to the Commission for a review of the decision.

Every person who has made a request under this Act may apply to the Commission for a review of any decision of the person in charge concerning the time prescribed for processing the request, the mode of access to a document or information, the application of section 9 or the fee payable.

The application must be made within thirty days of the date of the decision or of the time granted by this Act to the person in charge for processing a request. However, the Commission may, for any serious cause, release the applicant from a failure to observe the time limit.

1982, c. 30, s. 135.
